BAY HIGH BAND TO HAVE FULL SCHEDULE FOR COMING SESSION

Increased From Eight Members to Organization of Sixty Members—State Contest at Jackson To Be Among Activities—W. C. Morgan, Director.

The Bay High Band was organized in the month of August in 1938, with an enrollment of eight members, by Mr. W. C. Morgan. Mr. Morgan came to Bay High with the task of making a band out of a group of students who knew nothing whatsoever about music or band work, confronting him. After school opened more and more became interested and instruments were ordered on which the new members were taught to play. Now, one year later, the Bay High band progressed from the group of eight to a complete band of sixty, leaving the year's trail behind lighted with many successful events. The most important of these events was the first concert, held in December; the two Carnival parades in New Orleans, and the first Annual Spring Contest presented in April.

The band continued work during the summer with a very good successful program arranged by Mr. Morgan. Each member was given two private lessons a week and every Thursday night a concert was held to which the public was invited to attend. A great interest was shown in these concerts and they proved to be highly successful.

Although the band has a past record to be proud of, the future promises to be even more brilliant. A "Five Year Plan" has been studied and prepared to govern the musical development of students wishing to become members of the Senior band. This program requires five years of work preceding admittance to the first band and is to be divided into the following steps:

The first and second grades will be organized into a rhythm band under the direction of the piano and singing teacher, Mrs. Carl Smith. In this organization the young students will be taught to follow a baton and recognize different tempos. From this they will enter a tonette band, for the third and fourth grades, under the supervision of Mr. Morgan. The tonette is a melody instrument and includes a complete course in the fundamentals of music.

In the fifth grade the pupils will be admitted into the Junior Band and taught to play the real band instruments. At the end of one year, or if necessary two years, of study on fundamentals and light playing the students will be eligible to take an examination for admittance to the senior band.

During the coming session the band expects to participate in a number of important events. In addition to a complete football schedule, several concerts, the most important of which being the Annual Spring Concert, an invitation to two of the major Carnival Parades in New Orleans, La., and the State Contest at Jackson, Miss., are included on the program.

In addition to the splendid work done by the Bay High band, there is an unusually fine spirit among the members.

The library is indebted to Mrs. Wenar for a gift of 50 books which will be widely read. Also the 96 numbers of the Geographic Magazine which Mrs. Wenar also sent will be far reaching meeting many needs. The library has recently purchased Mrs. Borden's "A Passport for a Girl," fiction written around the period of time when Australia was taken by Germany. Jane Abbott's "To Have, To Keep," a light romance and Rex Stout's "A Mountain Cat," a mystery story. The library borrowed fifty books this week from the main library at Jackson. Most of these are children's books but there are several mystery stories and light fiction.

BROTHER ANDREW DIES AT 77

Was Well Known Locally, Having Taught Here For Many Years—Joined Order in 1876.

Brother Andrew, seventy-seven year old member of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart, died at 4 P. M., on Sunday in Mercy Hospital, New Orleans. The remains were shipped via Louisville & Nashville Railroad from New Orleans and interred in the Brothers' cemetery on St. Stanislaus College grounds after a requiem mass in St. Stanislaus chapel.

Brother Andrew was a native of Yazoo City and entered the Order in 1876 at Indianapolis, Ind., taking his final vows in 1886. He was prefect of discipline at St. Stanislaus here from 1888 to 1896 and taught at St. Aloysius in New Orleans on several different occasions, leaving there in 1936. Since then, he was infirmarian at the boys' orphanage, D'Everaux Hall, in Natchez, from which place he was taken to the Mercy Hospital in New Orleans two weeks ago.

Brother Andrew was well known and beloved in Bay St. Louis where he taught many of the town's outstanding citizens. He was especially noted for his interest in the boys of school age, always leading them in song at mass and in the singing of the Christmas music during the Christmas season. His passing removes a beloved and venerable character and many will be saddened by the news of his death.

CEREMONIES HELD AT PASCAGOULA SHIP YDS. MONDAY, AUGUST 14.

Congressman W. M. Colmer Speaks at Exercises Marking Laying of Keels for Two Ships.

On Monday, August 14, at the invitation of the officials of the Ingalls Shipbuilding Corporation at Pascagoula, two hundred persons comprising county and city officials, newspapermen and photographers, wives and numerous other persons heard Congressman Bill Colmer speak at exercises marking the laying of keels for two ships on ways No. 1 and 2 at the ship yard.

The sound of rivet guns and hammers used in laying of the keels were reminiscent to the older residents of the town of World War days when Pascagoula was the scene of a large ship building project, constructing ships for use in the late World War in transporting soldiers and supplies to Europe.

The Ingalls Shipbuilding Corporation has a contract from the United States Maritime Commission for the construction of four ships, 492 feet long, with beams of 69½ ft. and 42½ ft. depth, and a draft of 23½ feet. They will be of 17,600 tonnage and be capable of making 16½ knots, which is faster than the average speed of vessels presently operating in the American Merchant Marine.

SONGFEST GULFSIDE SUNDAY, 27

Gulfside Song Fest is looked forward to annually by the Gulf Coast people and it is the hope of the management that there may be even a larger attendance than heretofore. This particular program is given in honor of Mayor Bourgeois of Waveland and Mayor Blaise of Bay St. Louis. The city and county officials of the entire coast are most cordially welcomed.

YOUNG MATRON PASSES ON

Mrs. C. L. Reab, Daughter Of Former Mayor Chas. Traub, Dies at Her Home Here.

The grim hand of death again visited in Bay St. Louis and removed from our midst Mrs. Annie Laura Reab, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Charles Traub, and beloved wife of C. L. Reab, local building contractor, who died at her home on Burnett avenue Saturday morning at 12:30 A. M.

Mrs. Reab had been ill for a long time and her death was not altogether unexpected. She was a member of the Catholic Church and was buried with the rites of her faith from the Fahey Funeral Parlor on Sunday at 3 P. M. and the body taken to Our Lady of the Gulf Church, with services at the grave in St. Mary's cemetery, Father A. J. Gmelch, pastor, officiating.

A large funeral cortege followed the hearse to the cemetery and many beautiful floral offerings were placed upon the new grave. Pall bearers were E. S. Drake, J. A. Coward, J. W. Peairs, Edward Jones, Blanton Benoit and Wm. H. Griffin. Mrs. Reab was up until a few months ago, was active in work of local H. D. Money Aux. No. 5 of the Spanish American War Veterans and a guard of honor, composed of members of the local organization, clad in white and carrying American flags, formed an aisle through which the casket was borne at the funeral parlor, the church and at the grave, and placed a floral offering thereon.

Mrs. Reab had resided in Bay St. Louis for eighteen years, coming from New Orleans in which city she was born and where she had resided with her parents, Captain and Mrs. Traub, her father having been a captain of the New Orleans Police Department and for several years later, Mayor of our city. A large number of relatives and friends from New Orleans attended the funeral here.

Mrs. Reab is also survived by two brothers, Warren and Charles Traub, the latter, secretary-treas. of the Federal Savings and Loan Assn.

Mrs. Reab's passing was doubly sad because of her youth and removes from our midst a lovable personage, and the family have the sympathy of the entire community.

CANDIDATE E. P. ORTTE RECEIVES THREATS IN LETTERS AND CALLS.

In an Interview With This Paper, Mr. Ortte Gave The Following Statement.

"Shortly before the first primary an unknown person telephoned my home," said Mr. Ortte, threatening that I would not go through the first primary if I did not withdraw, then he hung up the receiver, without giving his name.

"The following night someone cut the front leather seat of my automobile destroying the whole seat."

"Between the first and second primaries I received other threats over the phone, one regular postmarked letter and numerous notes. Wednesday night after the Soft Ball game, when I made ready to leave in my automobile, I found another threatening note which was on the torn leather of the cut seat. The note read, 'that the writer was the party who called me before the first primary and that the only reason I lived to see the first primary was because they did not think I had a chance, but now as their man was in the run off they did not aim to see him defeated. Unless I published my resignation in the Echo this week they would cut my car, and I would not live to get the returns of the second primary.' Mr. Ortte further states, 'that he is going through with his election and he is not going to pay any attention to the threats, however he would like to know who these annoying bluffers are and if they will come out in the open, he would meet them on any grounds where and when they want.'"

All of this is most unethical and offers very poor sportsmanship. Mr. Ortte also states, 'he is running off this election, August 29th, regardless of any threat, or anything else that might come up.'"

First Installment Of School Funds Mailed On August 15, Stated.

J. S. Vandiver, State Superintendent of Education of Mississippi, states that $1,119,998.34 was mailed to state schools on Tuesday, August 15 as part payment of the first quarter of the 1939-40 school funds to all schools that have submitted budgets. ## FUNERAL SERVICES FOR YOUNG NEGRO PRIEST HELD HERE

Died at Opelousas, La.—Buried at St. Augustine's Seminary.

Reverend George Chachere, young Negro priest of the Society of the Divine Word, who died at his home in Opelousas, La., last Tuesday morning, was buried at St. Augustine Seminary, Bay St. Louis, Miss., Saturday morning, August 19, at 9 o'clock.

The funeral mass was sung by Reverend Vincent Smith, S. V. D., of St. Louis, Mo., assisted by Rev. John Dauphine, S. V. D., missionary to Africa, as Deacon and Reverend John Kist, S. V. D., of the Seminary as Sub-deacon; the latter two fathers being classmates of the deceased priest. Rev. Clarence J. Howard, S. V. D., of Lafayette, La., preached the sermon.

His Excellency, Bishop R. O. Gerow of Natchez, was present, as also were members of the clergy and laity from the coast.

Father Chachere, a native of Opelousas, La., made his entire course of studies for the priesthood with the Society of the Divine Word. He spent eleven years at St. Augustine Seminary, two years at Holy Ghost Novitiate, East Troy, Wisconsin, and the final year of his studies at the Gregorium in Rome. He was ordained to the priesthood in Rome at the age of 29.

He returned to the States the latter part of July, and sang his first Solemn Mass at home Sunday, August 6th, in Holy Ghost Church, Opelousas.

Father Chachere died of heart failure at about 3 a. m. Tuesday morning, August 15th., at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chachere.

The body was kept at the home until Thursday evening, when it was transferred to the Holy Ghost Church, where members of the Knights of Peter Claver kept an all-night vigil. Friday morning at 6 o'clock a Requiem Mass was said, after which the body was taken to St. Mary's Church, where a Solemn Requiem mass was sung for the deceased by the Rev. Anthony Bourges, S. V. D., of Lafayette, La., assisted by Rev. Vincent Smith, S. V. D., and Rev. Leo Woods, S. V. D., of Dusan, La., preached to the exceptionally large number of priests and people gathered for the services.

Friday evening the body was brought by train to Bay St. Louis, Miss., accompanied by a large number of relatives and friends, who kept an all-night vigil with the corpse in the Seminary chapel.

Father Chachere was one of a class of five colored priests ordained this year, two of whom are to sail soon as missionaries to Africa, and the other two have been assigned to missionary work in the United States. Father Chachere had not yet received his own appointment before his sudden death last Tuesday.

FARM RELIEF IMPERATIVE

WITH 7,000,000 farms, 32,000,000 people on them and farm property valued at about $60,000,000,000 agriculture is a big enterprise in the United States.

So long as this great segment of our economic structure suffers there is not likely to be a solution to the ills that affect the nation. The farm problem, so-called, is not of recent origin. Presidents Calvin Coolidge and Hoover wrestled with the issue and the efforts of the New Deal cannot, as yet, be pronounced successful in meeting the conditions that confront our farmers.

This distress that has wrecked agriculture for nearly two decades cannot be explained easily. It is due to a number of causes, some of domestic and some of foreign origin. Speedy remedies are not available and slow processes must be allowed to work a solution to grave troubles.

We have said before that, in our opinion, much of the nation's unemployment can be eliminated when the farmers of the nation receive a fair share of the national income. This will restore a balance between industry and consumers, without which the economic machine creaks, strains and eventually collapses.

Unfortunately we cannot foresee any quick recovery for agriculture. Benefits, lending and other regulations work slowly against tremendous economic handicaps. It will take time to discover the solution of the nation's problem and to offer farm families the opportunity that Americans boast exists in this country.

It should be pointed out, we think, that individual farmers can do something to improve their own condition. There is no excuse for the adoption of an attitude that it is the government's exclusive task. Intelligent agriculturists will make every possible endeavor to make farming profitable without waiting for any millennium.

SALT CAN SAVE YOU!

THE danger of heat prostration can be lessened by the individual who looks after his system's salt supply, if we read aright a document of the U. S. Public Health Service. Prescribing liberal doses of salt the experts say that if salt lost in perspiration is not replaced and in adequate amounts the sweat glands of the body close up and heat prostration results.

Some steel plants and other industries, where men work in excessive heat, have cut the number of prostrations by 90 per cent by providing salt tablets at every drinking fountain.

So there you are! Just get a salt block, lick it a few times a day, perspire freely and you won't find yourself lying on your back, a victim of heat prostration. Don't say we didn't warn you!

DON'T WORRY; USE COAL FOR GAS!

FOR the benefit of those who are worrying lest the world's supply of gasoline runs low we call attention to an experiment in Chicago, in which liquid coal was used to drive a standard automobile without changing its carburetion system.

Liquid coal, we are advised, is composed of 60 per cent range oil, a very light fuel, 10 per cent petroleum for easy starting, a secret chemical and 30 per cent pulverized coal. It can be manufactured much cheaper than gasoline.

Now, that's settled and the average motorist can ride around to the filling station, fill up the tank with gasoline and take a side without concern lest the automobiles of the world come to a stop for lack of fuel.

WARNING THE BEAUTIES.

THE killing of a young woman in Florida by a man who lured her to death with a lot of chatter about being a Hollywood talent scout should serve as a warning to movie-struck girls all over the nation.

Late news from the scene of the tragedy indicate that the man says he is ready for the electric chair and arrangements should be concluded to put him there in short order.

Of course, we know there are many attractive young women in Hancock county who are just sure that they would be hits on the screen but we advise them to be careful about believing promises of any self-appointed guide, especially if he is a stranger.

MERCY SLAYING DANGEROUS.

ANOTHER mercy slaying engages the public mind in connection with the death of the 65-year-old woman in Pennsylvania, whose sister put her out of her misery as an act of mercy.

The killer, a 74-year-old spinster, says her work on earth is done and is assured that she "did right."

Killing is a fearful crime, regardless of motive, but just the same it seems a little foolish to let hopelessly afflicted people suffer when there is no remedy for their ailment. It may be more foolish, however, to permit self-appointed executioners to slay people as their fancy impels them.

Advertising won't do any business any good unless it is intelligently prepared and wisely placed; brains make advertising profitable.

PROTECT SUMMER HOMES AND CAMPS FROM FIRE.

THE pleasure and profit to be gained from summer homes and camps can be transformed easily into tragedy and loss by fire. These temporary homes, by their very nature, call for greater vigilance during week-end and vacation occupancy.

The use of kerosene for lamps and stoves is a common source of fire. But if a few simple rules are observed, the danger can be greatly reduced. Fill lamps and stoves in the daylight so you can see what you are doing. Store kerosene and all other flammable liquids outside the house. Use a tank or drum that has a drip-proof faucet and keep a drip pan under the faucet. Never start or hasten a fire with kerosene or any other flammable liquid. If a portable kerosene heater is to be used, make sure it is one listed by the Underwriters' Laboratories.

Don't make improper alterations or extensions of electric wiring. Guard against overheating of stoves which are near woodwork; the usual sheet of metal attached to the woodwork is of little value in protecting against ignition. Smokepipes should not pass through walls or partitions of wood or with wood lath.

Burn accumulation of rubbish and litter in a metal incinerator. When fires are started outdoors never leave them unattended.

Because summer homes and camps usually are remote from fire departments, and since water is not always readily available, keep fire pails and pump tanks or fire extinguishers on hand and know how to use them. If there is an extinguisher in your car, that too affords valuable fire protection to the summer home as well as on the road or in the garage.

And speaking of automobiles, if you value your life, don't burn up the roads and don't burn up the countryside. Throwing lighted cigarettes and cigars out of the window of your car as you pass along the road, may cause great loss of life and property. Use the ashtrays provided by the car manufacturer for disposing of stubs and ashes. And be sure you have plenty of ashtrays around that summer camp or cottage.

Do your part to protect your life, your property, and the great outdoors against fire.

NEW AUTO LIGHT IS SAFER.

AFTER three years of cooperative effort on the part of automobile engineers a new type head light will be revealed to public this week but enough is known to assert that it will add to the safety of the highways at night.

Preliminary announcement states that all automobile manufacturers will include the new "sealed beam" headlight, which will give fifty per cent increase in range for the up, or "country," beam more, more fully illuminate the right side of the road with the low, or "traffic beam," and, at the same time reduce the glare.

Such an improvement will undoubtedly save many lives because half of the highway fatalities occur at night, when less than a quarter of the traffic is moving, and the presumption is that lights have something to do with the casualties.

Anybody who drives the highway at night realizes the importance of dimming lights when meeting traffic. The new lamp will increase the safety factor through its use. In some states the use of the low beam is mandatory when meeting other vehicles but, in these States, as elsewhere, there are inconsiderate people who drive cars.

SUPPORTING THE CHURCHES.

THE churches of the world are institutions of man, designed to help human beings towards perfection, the goal of most religions.

Intelligent men and women, for hundreds of years, have supported the church of their choice. Sometimes, superstition and ignorance have egged individuals to do great things in the name of religion but more and more, people support churches from intelligent appreciation of the functions of churches.

We are not particularly interested in the church to which any individual belongs. That is a matter for every person to decide. Some human beings like religion served in one way and some like it otherwise. The variety of style, treatment and types can only be explained by the varied nature of men and women who must be served.

Just as adults give their time and money to support other worthwhile undertakings they should deliberately plan to give of their time and money to the church to which they belong. It takes money to run any organization and while the church has a Divine cause it has certain very definite human needs, which must be met by those who belong to it.

WARN THE CHILDREN.

ADULTS should be certain to warn children about dangers that lurk in apparently harmless things.

Parents, who have boys and girls, should certainly take occasion to point out the perils that threaten them. Some of these threats are insidious and difficult to foresee but others are fairly patent and easily guarded against.

For example the other day we read about a 11-year-old boy, who was given an electric toy motor. He attached it to a propeller and put the apparatus in a bathtub to see how it would work. The resulting electric shock hurled him into the tub, here he drowned.

Now, we suspect this lad had not been warned about the danger of electricity and water. His act, however, was perfectly natural and his zeal for experiment resulted in disaster.

Parents in Hancock county might call attention to his fate and thus effectively impress upon the minds of their children the necessity for care in handling some of their playthings. The incident can be multiplied many times and, in each case, some object lesson demonstrated to inexperienced youngsters.

When a sweet young thing tells a strong young man how wonderful he is, Cupid looks for other work to do.

If all the bills that are introduced in all the legislatures of all the states could be made into one great bill it would be some bill.

Hollywood Notes.

MARLENE Dietrich has been engaged to play the lead opposite James Stewart in "Destiny Rides Again." Mischa Auer will have a supporting role in the same picture.

"Pocahontas" will probably be filmed in technicolor next summer with Hedy LaMarr playing opposite Clark Gable or Spencer Tracy.

Herbert Marshall has withdrawn from the play, "Ladies and Gentlemen," with Helen Hayes.

Jane Bryan has replaced the European actress, Dolly Haas, as feminine lead opposite Paul Muni in "We Are Not Alone." A minor nervous collapse was given as the reason of Miss Haas' withdrawal.

A first novel by Augusta Tucker entitled "Miss Susie Slagles" has been purchased by Paramount for $20,000.

Lillian Gish was offered the part of the mother in "Swiss Family Robinson," but refused it. Kay Francis may portray the role.

Bert Wheeler is to have a leading role in a stage musical, "Hold Your Hats," this fall. This will be the first time Wheeler has appeared on Broadway in a musical since 1927 when he played in Ziegfeld's "Rio Rita."

Charlie Chaplin has $1,000,000 profits from his pictures, tied up in Italy and can't get a cent of it out of that country. To someone's suggestion that he build a villa with the money in Italy and live there part of the year, he said he would rather lose the money.

About a decade ago a blonde young girl and a dark young man were screen tested by Paramount in England. They were both turned down. The girl was Muriel Angelus, who now has the lead in "The Light That Failed," and the boy was Ray Milland, who has been starring in pictures for about two years.

On account of William Powell's health, shooting is stopped every afternoon at 2 o'clock on "The Return of the Thin Man."

Richard Carle is celebrating his fiftieth anniversary in show business by appearing as Robert Taylor's deaf partner in "Remember." They say he is awfully funny in the part.

After a two weeks' appearance as Billy Rose's Casa Manana headliner in Fort Worth, Texas, Martha Raye, will go back to Hollywood to star in "The Farmer's Daughter."

Lois Maron who was quite a favorite of the silent movies, has a nice part in "Suwanee River," with Don Ameche and Andrea Leeds.

Bob Hope is reported to have received a round trip ticket to Europe and a check for $25,000 from his radio sponsors.

Deanna Durbin has signed a contract to sing at the Metropolitan Opera House within the next three years.

Robert Montgomery, who is making a picture in England, is also doing real well, socially speaking. He was the guest recently of the Duke and Duchess of Sutherland. He is planning to rent a famous eighteenth century house which is near the Denham studios.

IT'S TRUE!

New York, N.Y.—"IT'S TRUE! that the largest number of midgets ever gathered together anywhere in the world, were assembled to play the Munchkins in M-G-M's 'The Wizard of Oz,'" says Wiley Padan. "Sixty-two shades of all possible colors were used in the large Munchkin Village set. The screen version of L. Frank Baum's famous story will be made in Technicolor. Mervyn Le Roy, producer, is planning to send the entire Village set to the New York World's Fair following completion of the picture."

Dots and Dashes From The Pacific Coast.

HERE is more about the San Francisco World's Fair. Its organized system is perfect. Official attendants, everywhere insure quiet and pleasure to the daily crowds. The Island Treasure seekers have worn holes in the hard surfaced roads of the man made island. Besides, the Official Guide Book, the Chevron Sign booklet, and the signal Gasoline Guide to the Exposition, are fine.

Theme of the fair:

Recreation and Western Progress symbolized by the World's two largest bridges, spanning San Francisco Bay and the Golden State.

Items: Tower of the Sun is 400 feet high. Portals of the Pacific, is the main entrance to the fair. It has an Elephant Tower on each side. Palms and small bridges over the auto road from Oakland Bay Bridge; beautify the front on San Francisco bay.

Administration Building is on the left, beyond it and Oakland is a David Scannell Fireboat, partly painted red.

On the shore are flags of the U. S., California and World. In the Vista beyond is the Tower of the Sun. On the other side of the Portals of the Pacific, is the Mines and Machinery Bldg. I thought it most interesting. Near the entrance, a raised bronze arm holds a huge gold Nugget. There are Gold specimens, gold scales, large gold U. S. coins of different years are set in the side walls. There is a Treasure Mt.; and most beautiful exhibits of Opals, polished precious stones, exquisite minerals and precious stones in the rough.

The exhibits of the Fair are: Foreign, Federal, States, Business, Art and Administration.

From the Court of Pacifica to the Tower of the Sun, on either side are Vacationland and the Hall of Science. In the end of Vacationland Bldg., is the exhibit of Peace and War. In a yellow circular chamber at the top of a stairway a voice cries "Do you choose Peace or War?" Below is a low small dark room.

Some distance to the left are the Federal Building and the California Auditorium. They are covered with Paintings of Pioneer scenes. An Open air band stand and seats, is in front of the Federal bldg., and is used constantly. The Folies Bergeres a New York Show was at the Cal. Theater nearby. The Flags of all nations were there to, waving in wide-open spaces. Homes and gardens bldg., is large, with many small model homes outside, on the opposite of the fair, is Seaplane Base. Where seaplanes stay and start off on the Bay close by.

Pacific House however is to the left and around towards the Ferry entrance. It is in the center, with the Pavilions of the Pacific Area surrounding it, with three Lagoons connecting them with the Foreign Bldg. High hedges of gorgeous flowers; some of the exhibits are South America Singapore, Paris, with a painted lake in front, the French building and Lafayette bldg. Wide circular steps lead into the lagoons. All civilizations are represented at the Golden Gate Exposition. The Isle of Bali Restaurant is on the lagoons, it has a lawn with strange statues and hedges of Daisies and poppies near the water's edge, on Lagoon No. 1, Sumatra Manufactures fine silk and stuffs.

It has exquisite Silver, Malay, Woven silk, Johore, A fine exhibit. Also a huge Elephant's Foot, for umbrellas and canes, the Elephant was shot by the Sultan of Johore. The Sultan's Crest was above it. It was, SI and a crown. Four swans two black and two white are on the lagoons. Large Swanshaped boats too.

There is only one Drug Store, The Owl Drug Store, I bought a souvenir knife there. I forgot to mention, that in the Art bldg., is shown the Drake Plot. It is rather small, half a foot long, with a hole in the lower right corner where the coin with Queen Elizabeth on it used to be. The plate looks like copper. It was found near San Quantan Bay, 1936.

May beautiful folde's, etc., are given away. To the left of the Court of Pacifica is the Gateway. Further on around Treasure Island is La Plaza ground, Livestock Bldg., and the South Ferry landing. School children visiting the fair are allowed five days to see it. I think it was the Court of Honor, between Pacifica and the Tower of Sun, that I saw a young man leaping and taking postures. He was impersonating a Faun and being Photographed. Australia has the largest Gold Nugget in the world. It is over a foot square. The Federal bldg., has a concert hall in the back. Its seats are huge logs with canvas backs. Nearby, a relaye Robots in different positions. I think its Australia, that has Kangaroos. Canada was very polite, and promised to send folders to those who registered. The tall candles around the Tower of the Sun are light blue. Gayway has boxed Acacias and Passion flowers.

The Salvation Army, had a big Parade and Concert. Also General Motors, in their parade, all the elephant trains joined in and soldiers too, and they paraded around the Island several times. They gave free tickets to all their employees, to the Cavalcade Show. A large Dairy bldg. good lunches too. Lots of Salvation Army people there.

They replant—putting in seasonable flowers. By the flags on the water front near the Oakland Bridge are the most beautiful beds of dark pansies. The Ford bldg., is wonderful. The fine autos magnificent! The buildings inside were well lighted at night. The changing shades are lovely at night. From the ferry the effect is good; the colors seen easily; but from the Oakland bridge the lighting has a silvery look as if a silver Treasure Island. One of the ferries is called Treasure Island. Cars to Market street wait by the ferry entrance. The Keystone Hotel has a bus station next door. The buses pass behind the hotel. I saw the Pan American Airways Clipper getting ready to enter the Bay near Oakland. Czechoslovakia, Japan and Holland were very pretty. Had manufactured articles.

Cavalcade was a Western Pioneer Pageant. On General Motors Day, the waiting crowd was a thing to remember. Gayway has Oriental goods, enticing exhibits, lots of dance shows, etc. We went to a dance show, and the Sally Rand Ranch. The name seemed fair (joke.) But the limit is what counts at a World's Fair. The Hall of Flowers, was a dream of flowers. Overflowing Salmon Red and all colors of Begonias. They look like Roses. I forgot the Botanical name. Fine Fushias, Yellow Callas, Fancies, Hydrangeas, etc. There was singing and music also.

Hot dogs, souvenirs and drinks, were the favorite small stands. Mission bldg. had pictures of Cal's different Missions on a constantly changing screen. I registered several times, they seem to like it. In Pacific House maps covered the walls and a large pool in the center, contains one of the Pacific areas. The wall maps were: People of the Pacific, Economy of the Pacific Area, and Trade Routes.

More time should be spent at the San Francisco Golden Gate International Exposition.

My friends had a sister in the Franklin Hospital in San Francisco, so we visited her first. Later we drove to the Golden Gate Park. The museum, a long double building, is very fine, has many beautiful objects. I didn't care much for the latest style of paintings though. But the Aquarium on the opposite of the park was very new. So many wonderful and strange fish! In front of the aquarium is a statue of Key, the author of the Star Spangled Banner. Then we drove around the city. It is fine, but I like the steep streets, so picturesque; they smoke cigarettes in the Theater galleries too. We visited the fish market. Its much larger now. Lots of fishing boats were in the Bay, large crates along the sidewalk, where crabs and lobsters are cooked. We had shrimp cocktails in the restaurant. The shrimp were tiny ones, but tasted fine.

Another day we went to Oakland, its a lovely place, nice drives and houses. We visited some more relatives, at one place they were all musicians and played together.

At the other place they gave us a fine dinner: It was late when we left for home.

Soon we reached Berkeley, and Berkeley College. It was all fine. In San Francisco, we saw in the distance the San Francisco race track. Claude Davies my friend, son works there when they have the races. Also Santa Anita and Hollywood. He is an electrician.

THE ECHO'S COOKING CLASS

If you crave breads that are different, try the recipes on this page. They have been given to me by a famous cook who has gathered her recipes from many sources. They are easy to prepare and the results are always good.

Cream Rolls

1 cup thin cream
 1 yeast cake
 1 cup butter or other shortening
 5 egg yolks
 3 cups flour
 ½ cup sugar
 1 cup blanched almonds
 chopped

Scald cream and cool until lukewarm; crumble yeast and mix with the cooled cream. Cream butter thoroughly, add egg yolks one at a time, beating after each addition. Add flour alternately with yeast mixture, to the creamed butter and egg yolks. Beat thoroughly. Chill dough overnight in the refrigerator. Mix sugar and nuts and sprinkle over the mixture on the molding board. Divide the chilled dough in half, roll out each portion in the sugar and nuts until the dough is 1-8 inch thick. Roll up like a jelly roll. Cut off 1- inch slices and place on a greased baking sheet, cut side up 1½ inches apart. Let rolls rise until light, about 1 hour. Bake in an oven 350 degrees for 25 minutes until delicately browned.

Fig Luncheon Muffins

1 cup dried figs
4 tablespoons butter
¼ cup sugar
1 egg beaten
½ cup molasses
½ cup water
2 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon ginger
½ teaspoon cinnamon
3 cups bread crumbs

Tea Cake

2 cups milk
6 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons sugar
1 cup melted shortening
½ yeast cake
2 tablespoons lukewarm water

Party Twist

1½ cups flour
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup butter
1 yeast cake
¼ cup lukewarm milk
1 tablespoon sugar
2 egg yolks, beaten
¼ cup each, chopped pecans and granulated sugar

flour and s

the butter as in making pastry; work it in a little more thoroughly. Crumble the yeast, blend with the lukewarm milk and sugar until the mixture is smooth. Combine with flour and mix well. Let stand in a warm place for 5 to 10 minutes. Add egg yolks one at a time, mixing well after each addition. Cover dough and let rise in a warm ours. The

be very soft. Turn out on a lightly floured board. Do not knead it. Divide into 18 equal portions. Mix equal amounts of sugar, chopped nuts and raisins on a waxed paper. Roll pieces of dough between palms of hands into fingerlike lengths. Holding dough at both ends, twist in opposite directions, to form a spiral. Bake on greased baking sheet.

with a glass

Consumption of butter recently has been production, and while stocks are large, they are much more nearly normal than earlier in the year. Stocks held by Governmental agencies have been greatly reduced, and on July 1, were large enough to provide for relief distribution at the current rate for about 3 months.
